Athol and Worcester West Chronicle.

Athol's Oldest and Most Sought for Family Paper.
Published Weekly.

194 EXCHANGE STREET, - ATHOL, MASS.

R. WM. WATERMAN, Editor and Proprietor.

THE CHRONICLE is an eight page, 60 column, Family Paper; as its motto is "Open to All, Influenced by None," its editorials and correspondents are independent and outspoken. The local news of Athol and neighboring towns will be found complete, more money being paid for this purpose by the proprietor than by any other publisher in the field. The farm, garden, household, miscellaneous, youth's and story departments are of unusual interest, much of the matter being written expressly for the paper. No obscene or objectionable advertisements are allowed in its pages. THE CHRONICLE is not only as large as any paper printed in Worcester North West, but has the largest circulation in Athol and adjoining towns, therefore it is the best advertising medium.

The Boston Journal says: "There is no paper in the State which takes better care of the local news of its own county than the ATHOL CHRONICLE.

The Worcester Gazette classes THE CHRONICLE as "One of the best Worcester County papers."

The Boston Globe has said that "THE WORCESTER WEST CHRONICLE is one of the Globe's brightest New England exchanges," and the Press and Printer that "THE CHRONICLE deserves to prosper and does.' "

A Good Home Paper

is a necessity in every household. It supplies a want that no other paper can fill. It tells all about the transactions of your neighborhood. It keeps you in touch with town affairs. It suggests to you ways in which you can be of service to your community. It needs your co-operation in home affairs. You may not always agree with it, but you should always subscribe for it.

The Athol Transcript

Is such a paper. It is the Favorite Local Family Newspaper. It reaches the most thrifty people of this section, and is unsurpassed as an Advertising Medium. It is an 8 page, 48 column weekly, and its reports of current news happenings in Athol and surrounding towns are always the most complete and reliable.

TERMS: One Year, $1.50; 6 Months, 75 cents; ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. A copy will be sent on trial Free on application with 10 cents for postage.
